Observations...

By UDELL

We know that when a big construction crew is working on a project the size of the new highway, they have little time to think of anything but getting their work finished. Well, they should take time off and think of the people who have to pass over the roads where they are working, particularly at a time when the rains make passing almost impossible. Second street is a mud hole. The beach front has two very nice little ditches across the road that can hardly be avoided. And Dunbar avenue... Well, for over a week, passage was practically impossible. Why, on one Saturday night, about 15 people were bogged, simply because they had no signal lights to let them know that the road was all boggy and slushy. After a good many complaints, oyster shells were placed in the holes. But this relief was short-lived. This week, the road was packed with dirt, but now with the heavy rains we had Monday and Tuesday it is back in the same condition. If this keeps up, people living on the other side of the highway will have to get a canoe or tractor to get across.

Christmas night, a serious accident which might have resulted in fatal injuries, occurred at the railroad crossing by Metairie's in Waveland. An automobile stalled on the tracks, and the occupant jumped from the vehicle before it was hit by the train and exploded.

S. J. Ingram, superintendent of Public Schools has announced the special education classes for handicapped children will start at Bay High Monday, January 5, at 9:00 a. m. All children who have been screened will be allowed to start classes.

Basketball games between Bay High and St. Stanislaus teams and Bay High and St. Joseph Academy will be held in the Bay High auditorium Tuesday, January 6. The girls' game will start at 7:30 p. m.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT UNEMPLOYMENT SECURITY

This article, the ninth of a series explaining the Mississippi Employment Security Program, is devoted to phases of the unemployment insurance program workers have asked about.

Q. If a claimant is disqualified for a certain period, does he automatically become eligible for benefits when the time expires?

A. Yes, if he has wage credits and if no jobs have opened up in the meantime that he can fill.

Q. What happens if a claimant files a claim and his employer has not been paying unemployment insurance tax as the law requires?

A. An investigation is made to determine if the employer should have been paying the tax on his workers. If it develops that he should have been, the worker is declared eligible for benefits, he receives them, and the employer has to pay the back taxes that he owes.

Q. After filing a claim how long before a worker receives his first unemployment insurance benefit check?

A. He has to serve a waiting period of one week after becoming unemployed before he is eligible for benefits. At the end of the first week for which he is eligible, or two weeks after becoming unemployed, he signs his claim and in two or three days the benefit check comes to him through the mail. If he becomes unemployed for a second time during a year, he does not serve a waiting period week.

Q. During what period of time must a worker's wage credits have been earned for him to be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits?

A. The wage credits must have been earned during the first four of the five preceding calendar quarters.

Q. If they were earned prior to such a period of time is he eligible for benefits?

A. No, they must have been earned in the first four of the five preceding quarters, which is known as the base period.

Next week our discussion of the unemployment insurance program will be continued.

Meet Your Area Forester

The forest, Mississippi's greatest renewable natural resource, provides products for more than 2,000 industries, provides annual employment for more than 55,000 people, occupies sixteen and one half of over thirty million acres of land, brings in more than $300,000,000 or one out of every six dollars that comes to our state annually.

During our virgin timber age, when the trees were tall, mature and tough, when the underbrush and grass was stunted and thin, little thought was given to the prevention or suppression of forest fires. Following the removal of our virgin timber, millions of acres of productive land were left to the annual ravage of wild, raging fires, accelerated by the dense ground cover and the open exposure to unbroken forces of wind. These uncontrolled fires would burn for days and nights, destroying favorable tree seed, seedlings, young saplings, game food, habitat and wildlife. This year-in year-out practice of destroying our future employment began to arouse our citizens to action. They realized that it was the beginning of a new stage and game of forestry and that it was necessary to protect the tender seedlings, young saplings and trees from certain destruction by fire, insects, and harvesting.

A resource of this importance and magnitude must forever have the interest and support of all the people. The legislature of 1926 became cognizant of this fact and authorized the creation of a State Forestry Commission.

Hancock County is composed of an Area Forester who maintains his office at Bay St. Louis in the Agricultural Center Building and who is under the general supervision of the District Forester and Assistant, with considerable latitude for independent decisions and actions within established policies, plans and objectives. The Area Forester has direct responsibilities for administering and directing the activities of the service in Hancock County. The dispatching tower located at Rocky Hill with two secondary towers, located at Westonia and Sellers can pick up and locate a fire, dispatch one of the Forest Service's four crews by radio in a matter of minutes. All Forest service personnel are on the twenty-four hour call seven days a week.

The forest service is financed by local, state and federal funds.

Services Held For Q. Craddock

Funeral services for Quincy O. Craddock, a native of Louisville, Kentucky and a resident of Bay St. Louis for many years, were held Wednesday, December 31, from the Fahy Funeral Home. Interment was in Bayou Coco cemetery, Kiln.

Mr. Craddock, the husband of the former Louise Morrison, died at his home on Highway 90 at 5:00 p. m. Tuesday, December 30. Born in 1889, he was the son of the late Mary and John Craddock of Louisville.

He is survived by his widow, and a son, Quincy O. Craddock Jr., of Miami.

County Forestry Members To Hear Lt.-Gov. Gartin

Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin will deliver the feature address at the regular monthly meeting of the Mississippi Forestry Association at Perkinston Junior College next Wednesday morning, January 7, A. L. May, college president, announced today.

The meeting, open to the public, will be held at 11 a. m. in the college Little Theatre with Jack Stuart Morton, president of the association, presiding. The lieutenant governor will be introduced by Boyce Holleman, lawyer of Wiggins and chairman of the Forestry Committee in the Mississippi House of Representatives.

Also on the program is W. C. Hammerle of the Southern Pine Association of New Orleans who will comment on the tree farm program in Mississippi. More than 15 tree farm certificates and signs will be awarded.

The group will have luncheon in the college cafeteria.

At 2 p. m. the Wiggins Memorial Roadside Park, located one mile south of Wiggins on U. S. Highway 49, will be dedicated and a marker installed commemorating the forestry contribution made by the late Brooks Toler. The unveiling will be by his daughter, Carolyn Toler.

At the time of his death Mr. Toler was employed by the Masonite Corporation, as manager of the wood, land, and timber department and director of public relations of the Laurel plant. He was also a member of the Mississippi Forestry Commission.

The park was made possible by the Wiggins Garden Club in cooperation with the State Highway Department. The club will be represented on the program by Mrs. James R. Davis, Wiggins, a former president of the group. Others who will make short speeches will be R. M. Newton, Wiggins, vice chairman of the Mississippi Forestry Commission; John D. Smith, highway commissioner for the southern district; C. M. Westphalen, president of Masonite Corporation, Laurel; and Monty Payne, former head of the forestry department, Mississippi State College.

The De Koven Preparatory School, a four year co-educational high school sponsored by Kebble College during the twelve-week Winter Quarter beginning January 5, announced Dean Lillone C. Schuchman. These courses are purposely scheduled particularly at these times for the convenience of the many adults who are interested in furthering their education and interests. The courses cover a wide range of subjects and are: College arithmetic, college algebra, human physiology, Christian Ethics, Educational Psychology, English Literature, Freshman English, Journalism, Art through the Ages, Greek, French, Spanish, World History, Child Development, Introduction to Sociology, Liturgical Music, Community Chorus, Piano, Voice, Elementary Theory and Harmony, and as many other subjects as there are a demand and for which there are a sufficient number of students.

Applicants may be evaluated for acceptance for admission on the following basis: high school seniors, adult specialists, auditors (non credit) and regular transfers, as well as students taking courses for transfer to another college or university.

All applications for admission should be received as far in advance as possible. Write the Director of Admissions, Kebble College, Pass Christian.

Paul Tourne's Move To New Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tourne and children, Paulette, 5, and Paul Jr., 2, former residents of Bay St. Louis, left Picayune Wednesday, December 31, for Hobbs, New Mexico.

Mr. Tourne will take over the Auto Parts company of that city. He operated Tourne's Auto Parts in Bay St. Louis before returning to Picayune several months ago.

The Rev. Douglas R. MacLaury, chairman of the Trustees, pointed out that this does not mean a lowering of standards or a reduction of courses, but seemed a reasonable, Christian, approach to the problem of providing the best education possible to the largest number of students regardless of the financial penalty which some would become the victim of if such a plan was not available to otherwise academically qualified students.

To Attend Baptist Meet In Wiggins

A district Leadership Conference and Brotherhood Rally will be held Thursday, January 8, at the Wiggins Baptist Church.

Those to attend will include pastors, church leaders, workers and laymen from the Baptist churches of this section.

Directing the one-day meeting will be a group of outstanding Baptist leaders from over the South as well as Mississippi.

The conferences will begin at 9:30 a. m. and adjourn at 9:00 p. m. The morning and afternoon sessions will be devoted to the leadership conferences while the Brotherhood Rally will be held at night.

Rev. S. M. Batson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and several church members from Bay St. Louis, will attend the conference.

Mothers Club to Meet

There will be a meeting of the Mothers Club of St. Joseph Academy on January 6, at the Convent Den. All members are urged to attend.

Dimes Must Match New Polio Gains

For the second time since it was inaugurated a decade and a half ago, the March of Dimes in 1953 will run for a full month, from January 2 through January 31.

This decision was forced by the record number of polio cases reported in 1952 and the tens of thousands of patients stricken in previous years who still need financial aid from the March of Dimes, Mrs. Theo Tudury, County Chairman, announced.

Another factor which led to the extended campaign period was the considerable expense of carrying the research fight against polio out of the laboratories and into the ranks of man himself.

44,000 Get Direct Help

Of the more than 55,000 persons treated for polio in 1952; approximately 44,000 were assisted in whole or in part by the March of Dimes.

The field trials to test the effectiveness of a possible preventive of paralysis polio were underwritten by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in addition to other vital research projects. Some 55,000 youngsters took part in the trials.

Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, is commenting

W. Lanius Dies Christmas Day

William Henry Holmes Lanius, resident of Bay St. Louis for the past three and a half years, died at his home Thursday, December 28, at 11:00 p. m.

Lanius, who was 49 years of age, was district manager of the International Salt Company. He was the son of the late Thompson Lanius and Florence Holmes.

The remains were taken from the Fahy Funeral Home Friday, December 29, to Tharp-Sonthel-Tharp Funeral Home in New Orleans for services and interment in Metairie cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Acree.

ENTERTAINS AT TEA

The home of Mrs. J. W. Hill Jr., on Main street was the scene of a tea Monday afternoon between the hours of 4:00 to 6:00.

The table, covered with a du-bonnet cloth, was centered with a Christmas tree decorated in various shades of blue. Candelabra holding blue tapers were placed at either end of the centerpiece; on either end of the table porcelain angles with blue wings were used. The whole arrangement was sprayed with silver glitter.

Silver leaves and branches of Japanese paper plants were used in the reception rooms where the Christmas tree, trimmed in pink and blue, was placed.

Tea girls were Mesdames T. A. Quigley, John Ellis Jr., and John L. Griffin, and Miss Lynne Lennoux of New Orleans. They were assisted by Mesdames Lewis Wagner and George Lehlteiner.

Assisting in pouring were Mesdames E. C. Samuel, Joseph Samuel, N. L. Carter, J. R. Rollins, Eugene Mogabgab, Herbert Wise, Paul Loup and Margaret Backman.

Approximately 50 guests called during the afternoon.

Fitzhugh Lee, Chairman of the Hancock County Production and Marketing Administration Committee, announces that January 15, 1953, is the final date for reporting performance under the 1952 Agricultural Conservation Program.

Mr. Lee adds that records of the Hancock County PMA Office show that there are nine farmers who have secured approvals of assistance for carrying out soil conservation practices who have not reported performance on these practices.

He urges all farmers who have carried out an approved soil conservation practice under the 1952 program report such practice not later than January 15, 1953. Otherwise the assistance cannot be granted.

A successful conservation program has been carried out in Hancock County in 1952 according to Chairman Lee. The Federal Government has helped to pay the cost of carrying out soil conserving practices on 158 Hancock County farms this year.

PURPOSE OF THE PROJECT

The Mississippi Division of the American Cancer Society has explained the purpose of the project. The budget for home care of terminal patients is exceedingly small. The number of terminal patients applying for aid under the program is increasing at a rapid rate, and will continue to increase in the month ahead. It has become necessary that supplementary funds be raised in order to meet the needs of these patients. For this reason, the Mississippi Division selected the Match Project as a means to finance this program.

Although this is a State project, the Mississippi Division further explains, as soon as the sum of $2,000.00 has been accumulated at the state level, county units participating in the project may request funds to supplement their operating funds.

The Lions Club members say they will sponsor this project with the full cooperation of every member of their steadily growing organization.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Piazza returned to Beaumont, Texas, after spending several days with their parents here and in Picayune.

—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moreau for the Christmas holidays were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Neal of Glenn, Miss. Mrs. Dan Sjodina and children, Dione and Dennis, of Shreveport, La., and William Carter of Keeler, A. F. B.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Corley and son, Holle, of New Iberia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farr. Recent guests of the Farris were Mrs. J. M. Sones and sons, Wayne and Bruce, of Chicago.

—News from Mrs. E. B. Richardson, who is still confined to Tournoy Infirmary, is that she is reported improving.

—William Irwin of Nashville, Tenn., is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Nelius Favre.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph diBenedetto and Mrs. J. C. Roland Jr., and children spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Dominick diBenedetto in New Orleans.

—Dominick, who has been at sea, arrived home Monday.

—The H. C. Glovers had with them for Christmas Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Glover and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glover Jr., of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. J. Glover and children of Opelousas; and David Glover of New Orleans.

—Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Wolfe and daughter, Helen, and son, Bernard, Mrs. Irma Fahy and Mr. and Mrs. George diBenedetto and family enjoyed Christmas dinner with the Joseph diBenedetto family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Lynch and daughter, Frances, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chevis and children, Billie and Carl, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Chevis over the holidays.

—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shubert and daughter, Annette, spent Monday visiting his parents.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Treutel and family left Wednesday for Pensacola where they will visit Mr. Treutel's aunt.

—Mrs. W. W. Davis and son, Devere, of Roxie, Miss., and Jack King of Meadville, Miss., are spending this week with Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. V. E. Lizana.

—Mrs. P. Piazza and son, Albert, Mrs. and Mrs. C. H. Piazza and children and Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Niolet and children spent Christmas in New Orleans with Mrs. P. Piazza.

The Bay St. Louis Lions Club voted at its last meeting to sponsor the year-round Match Project for Home Care Program of the Mississippi Division of the American Cancer Society.

The Lions Club will assume all responsibility for the Match Project and will place matchbooks in drugstores, restaurants, banks, grocery stores, filling stations and other places of business. The club will service these units; keep accurate records of proceeds collected, and turn these records in monthly to Mrs. Wilmer Thibaux, County Unit Chairman of the American Cancer Society.

Each display will hold a box of 50 books of matches. The display is designed to fit alongside a cash register without taking up too much space. A coin holder fits into the front end of the box, and a display card stands at the back inviting the public to "Take One - Give Only What You Wish." Each book of matches carries the Seven Cancer Danger Signals on the inside cover.

Prizes were donated by Mississippi Power Co., Ramsey's Department Store, Gulf Shrimp Company, Loring's, Rice, Wilcox Electric and Appliance Company, Kern's 5 and 10, and Scharff's Jitney-Junk.

Join The March Of Dimes

The care of a record number of polio victims and the speedy development of a preventive against the disease depend upon a record 1953 March of Dimes.

The March of Dimes will be in progress during the month of January in our own community and throughout the state and nation. Hearted citizens can help in the nation-wide battle against polio and in the fight in our own county by digging into their pockets and coming up with dimes and dollars to contribute to this worthy cause.

There were over 700 cases of polio in Mississippi in 1952, with two in Hancock County, to be the fourth consecutive critical year for this dreaded disease. No county, and hardly a single community, has escaped. All but three counties were hit during 1952. In addition, there are scores of cases held over from previous years. The March of Dimes has helped and will continue to help in all cases where help is needed.

Although the 1952 epidemic is over, there are hundreds of polio patients who still need help in their long and tedious battle back to health and we must be prepared to provide needed care for those sure to be stricken this year.

Your March of Dimes contribution will help win that battle, but it will take the enlistment of every possible person to make the drive the success it should be. Your dimes and dollars assure help for all victims of polio as long as help is needed. And research, now more promising than ever, must be continued until victory is won.

Let us hasten polio's end by giving generously to the March of Dimes. Make your contribution today!

Carol Jean Wilson

Pretty, brown-haired little Carol Jean Wilson five year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Wilson of Louisville, Mississippi, will head the Children's Division of the 1953 March of Dimes. Carol, stricken with polio in 1949, has made remarkable progress, and can walk some without aid of crutches. She is an expert twirler and last summer she learned to swim. "Join the March of Dimes" is Carol's personal appeal to all children in Mississippi.

County Schools Entitled To Take Part in Old Miss Skit

University, Miss., Dec. 26 — A skit contest will feature the entertainment at the Press Institute, March 20-21, according to Dr. Gerald Forbes, Chairman of the Department of Journalism at the University of Mississippi.

All the member schools of Hancock County will be entitled to come to the meeting prepared to produce their skit in the contest.

Chancellor John D. Williams will give a prize to the delegation producing the best entertainment skit in the contest. It will be judged by a special committee selected for that purpose.

This is one of the preliminary plans for the seventh annual meeting of the Press Institute, high school press association, Dr. Forbes explained. The meeting this time is expected to be by far the largest that has been held by the Institute, which has been growing annually.

All the high schools of the state that have publications have been asked to join the organization and send delegates. The program of the meeting will be designed to assist the students and their sponsors in solving the numerous problems of producing school publications.

Speakers who are specialists in the different phases of publishing will appear on the two-day program.

Every delegate will be permitted to enter the skit contest, regardless of the size of the school or the delegation, according to Dr. Forbes. In cooperation with the Department of Journalism at the University of Mississippi, this year's session promises to be more informative and entertaining than ever.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS
The Browster Mollere home on 376 Waveland Beach, was the scene of a cocktail party Sunday night given by Mr. and Mrs. Mollere, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colson and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald V. Price Jr.

Guests attending were Miss Betty Colson, Miss Mabel Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Torgerson, Mr. and Mrs. James Deane, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Vollrath, Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hill, Mr. and Mrs. George Huth, Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmermann, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Herlihy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gremillion, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bozeman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Mestayer Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Digby, Jr. and Mrs. Lester Walters, Adrian Hicks, Jimmy Landry and Allen Hicks.

County Schools Invited To Join Press Institute

University, Miss., Dec. 19 — All the schools of Hancock County are being invited to join the Press Institute, according to Dr. Gerald Forbes, Chairman of the Department of Journalism, University of Mississippi.

Invitations have been sent to the superintendents of schools at Bay St. Louis, Dedeaux, Line, Kiln and Sellers.

The Press Institute is a state-wide organization of high school editors which will hold its seventh annual meeting on the campus of The University of Mississippi March 20-21, he explained. The organization has been growing steadily since its organization.

"This year it is hoped that every school in Mississippi with a publication will take advantage of the services of the Press Institute," Dr. Forbes said. "For that reason the school dues have been reduced to only two dollars, so that it will be within the reach of all schools."

One of the chief values of the Institute is the annual meeting when staff members have an opportunity to gain instruction for the coming year. Another feature of the Institute is the Bulletin, the official publication, which brings suggestions and assistance to the school-publications during the year.

"The high school students enjoy the fun of meetings," Dr. Forbes explained, "but the sponsors appreciate the help and instruction."

County Agent's Notes

Replace Chicks Carefully For Laying

By HOWARD SIMMONS

POULTRY
"Cheap Chicks Don't Cheep Long" is the slogan to remember when you begin buying replacement chicks for your laying flock.

Make sure that your chicks come from U. S. Poultry Passed or Clean flocks. It is better to pay a little more for your birds and be sure of what you are getting than it is to buy diseased, or distressed birds.

Another thing to think about when buying chicks is "How far have they been shipped?" Shipping long distance many times weakens the birds and makes them more subject to diseases.

Be sure, not sorry, buy your birds at home from U. S. Poultry, passed or Clean flocks.

PASTURES
Make your pasture plan now for next year's grazing. Figure the best areas for the different combinations of grasses and clovers. Figure the best areas for the different seasons grazing.
Check up on seeding rates, dates, methods and the amount of fertilizer you will need. Buy your dallis and lespedeza seed now for next March planting, and find and book all the nitrogen you will need for March top-dressing.

OUTLOOK
Demand for farm products within the United States is expected to continue strong during 1953. However, foreign demand is expected to be down somewhat.

Farm production is expected to be close to the record level of 1952. Despite the drought of last year, total farm production was the highest on record.

Production costs will be somewhat higher during 1953 and grass farm cash receipts are not expected to increase. Prices of farm products will be somewhat lower in 1953.

Farmers net incomes, as a result of higher production costs and lower prices received, will be somewhat below 1952. Purchasing power of farmers is expected to be down somewhat.

Under the provisions of, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me, as trustee, in a deed of trust executed by Armar L. Walker and wife, Edna Walker on the 21st day of November, 1951, to secure an indebtedness to the Veterans Farm and Home Board of the State of Mississippi, and which said deed of trust is recorded in Book 51, pages 199-200 of the Records and Deeds of Trust in the Chancery Clerk's office of Hancock County, Mississippi, and default having been made thereon, I, Shed H. Weeks, Trustee, will on the 16th day of January, 1953, offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash to the highest and best bidder, at the

Countians Offered
Government's Best Seller To Help On 1952 Income Tax

Federal income taxpayers of Hancock County need not worry about this year about what is deductible from their 1952 income taxes, or just who should be exempt. Uncle Sam has figured it out for them again in his 1952 edition of the booklet, "Your Federal Income Taxes" which will soon be available at Department of Commerce field offices in the Southeast.

The publication "Your Federal Income Tax" is one of the nation's "best sellers" and each year thousands of orders for it are sent to Commerce Department field offices, according to Merrill C. Lofton, southeastern regional director of that agency in Atlanta. The 1952 edition of the booklet, which will again be available for 25 cents despite rising costs of other things, will incorporate any changes made in the internal revenue act.

Along with the booklet "Your Federal Income Tax," the Commerce Department is offering other publications and material designed to assist business men and other interested persons in making their 1952 income tax returns to Uncle Sam. The others include "Bulletin F" on the subject to depreciation and obsolescence, which is priced at 30 cents, the pamphlet "Your Rights
When the Government Questions
Your Income Tax" and "The Small Businessman and His Declaration of Estimated Tax," which sell for 10 cents each, and the leaflet "Basic Tax Information for Small Business Enterprises" for which there is no charge.

Orders are now being taken for these publications at U. S. Department of Commerce Offices at 716 Forsythe Building, Atlanta, 218 Post Office Building, Savannah, Sergeant Jasper Building, Charleston, 425 Federal Building, Jacksonville, 947 Seybold Building, Miami, 308 Federal Building, Mobile, and 229 Federal Building, Memphis, Mr. Lofton said.

Mollere-Brune Nuptials Held

In a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Father O'Keefe in the Jacksonville, Fla., Catholic church, at 8:30 a. m. December 23, Miss Mary Katherine Brune became the bride of Olo Joseph Mollere, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Mollere of Wayland.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Brune of Jacksonville, Fla., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin ballroom length gown with a basque effect waist and a finger tip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white tea roses, centered by a white orchid.

Her sister, who served as maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Barbara Brune of Jacksonville, wore a blue net ballerina length gown and carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses. Margie Dadds was flower girl.

Brewster Mollere of Wayland served his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride where the bride party was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Brune who wore a navy blue taffeta dress for her daughter's wedding. With this, she wore an orchid corsage. Also in the receiving line were Mrs. Mollere, who wore a navy blue French crepe dress with oyster white accessories and an orchid corsage, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Toler of Norfolk, Va., who wore a blue faille dress with an orchid corsage.

For their wedding trip to Nassau, the bride chose as her travel costume a blue faille suit worn with blue accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Upon their return they will be at home at 7406 St. Charles avenue, New Orleans.

Mr. Mollere, a graduate of St. Stephens college, is a student in Loyola university school of dentistry. The bride is a registered nurse who was graduated from Charity hospital, New Orleans.

Attending the wedding from Wayland were Mr. and Mrs. Mollere and the bridegroom's brother.

—Mrs. H. C. Glover spent Monday in New Orleans with her sister, Mrs. Dora DeCarlo, who is ill.

FOUR CRITICAL YEARS OF POLIO

Mississippi's four most severe years of polio are shown by the above maps. Each dot represents a case of polio, as reported by the State Board of Health. Not a single county in the state has escaped polio's attack during the four year period, 1949-1952. A total of 2,184 cases were recorded, or an average of 546 a year. One million, two hundred thousand dollars in March of Dimes money has been spent for treatment of these patients.

REWARD!

Liberal reward will be paid to anyone who can give me information which will lead to the recovery of my Doberman Pinscher dog, Rascal, who was lost Christmas eve. He is black with brown markings, has cropped tail and ears, and is very friendly, especially towards children. If you know the whereabouts of this dog, please call 274-W.
